

Upcoming Events

Current Exhibit - September 15, 2011 – May 4, 2012

Learn how various First Ladies helped the country through trying times of war, assassination, and national attacks. Tour the exhibit and see First Ladies clothing, photographs and other artifacts.

All tours are guided and include both the changing exhibits at the Education & Research Center and the Saxton McKinley House, the restored Victorian home of First Lady Ida Saxton McKinley. Tours last 1 ½ hrs.

Tour Hours: Tuesday – Saturday 9:30 & 10:30 am & 12:30, 1:30 & 2:30 pm, plus Sundays in June, July & August 12:30, 1:30 & 2:30 pm

Tours Begin at the Education and Research Center, 205 Market Ave. South, Canton, OH 44702

Reservations are required for groups of six or more.
$7 adults, $6 seniors, $5 children under 18 – includes both buildings:
$3 Education & Research Center only. Free Parking, Buses Welcome!

February 11, 2012 “Love is Eternal” 3:30 p.m.

A Special “Be My Valentine” Package for Two

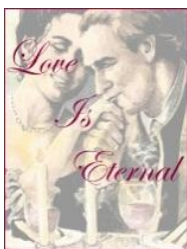

For You and the Valentine in your life: something special for family members, gal pals, husbands and wives, guys and gals, work buddies, friends...

Love Is Eternal - A Living History Program at the National First Ladies' Library

Dinner at Benders Restaurant after the program!
General admission $85.00 (for two) Members $80.00 (for two)
Program only $25 Members $22

If you are looking for something uniquely different & affordable to celebrate Valentine's Day, we've got a special package just for you! How about dinner and a special live performance with America's First Couples? The letters of selected Presidents and First Ladies are presented in a live presentation that is sure to be a living history Valentine.

After the program in the beautiful Victorian theatre of the Education and Research Center, step around the corner to Bender's Restaurant to continue the evening with a fantastic dinner & your choice: Scrod ala Foley, 10 oz. Texas Sirloin Steak, Chicken Marsala or Pasta Primavera. Each dinner will include a mixed green salad, choice of Bender fries or baked potato, mini chocolate peanut butter sundae, bottle of chardonnay/merlot/cabernet sauvignon or Riesling, coffee, INCLUDING tax, and tip.

Reservation deadline Monday, February 6th

Call for program reservations (330) 452-0876 ext. 307 or tour reservations (330) 452-0876 ext 320

205 & 331 Market Avenue S. Canton, Ohio 44702 - www.firstladies.org

March 10, 2012 "Girl Scout Birthday Celebration" 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

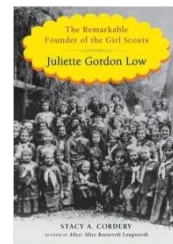

The National First Ladies' Library will host a book signing event in honor of the 100th anniversary of the Girl Scouts of the United States. Every First Lady since Edith Wilson including Michelle Obama has been the honorary president of the Girl Scouts. Both Lou Henry Hoover and Florence Harding were huge advocates of the Girl Scouts before and during their time as First Lady. There will be a youth activity.

10:00 am First Ladies as First Scouts
10:30 am Author Stacy Cordery presentation
11:30 am Girl Scout 100th Birthday Party, special book signing, activity, birthday cake

Program Admission $3 Girl Scouts in uniform $1
Reservation Deadline Monday, March 5th

Special guest author Stacy Cordery signing her latest book "Juliette Gordon Low: The Remarkable Founder of the Girl Scouts"

1:00 - 3:00 Book signing-Free Books sold on sight

April 21, 2012 “Evening Affair with Dolley Madison” 6:00 p.m.

Cost: TBA

Mrs. Madison cordially invites you to attend her drawing room. Everyone is welcome!

Dolley Madison was the leader of everything fashionable in Washington City. She used her infamous drawing rooms in the President's House during her husband's presidency as social gatherings to further her husband's political agenda. There is a rumor that The War of 1812 may have begun when Mrs. Madison shared snuff with Senator Henry Clay during one of those evenings! So many guests attended her social gatherings that they became known as "Mrs. Madison's Squeezes." Learn how a daughter born to Quaker parents became "Queen Dolley" the most famous woman of her time and for all time.

Mrs. Madison will be your hostess for "the squeeze" and buffet in the great gallery following her program in the theatre.

Reservation Deadline Monday, April 16th

New Exhibit: May 8, 2012
From Frontierwoman to Flapper: Ohio's First Ladies

